SLAM POETRY

SOLO POETRY COMPETITION

ONLINE

Slam Poetry is a form of performance poetry that combines the elements of performance, writing, and audience participation. It is performed at events called poetry slams, or simply slams. The name slam comes from how the audience has the power to praise or, sometimes, destroy a poem performed by the high-on-energy style of the poets.

GUIDELINES

- Each poem must be of the poet's own creation. · The poet may choose to use a sheet of paper, notebook or their phone to read from.
- The poet may NOT use props, costumes, pre-recorded/taped music, or musical instruments while performing.
- You are allowed to sing or beat box or make any other sounds with your body in your performance.
- The poem may NOT include sexist, racist, homophobic, or transphobic comments and failing to do so will lead to disqualification.
- However, anger, upset and frustration are valid emotions to express in your poem.
- The poets are free to perform on any topic of their choice. Each poet gets three minutes (plus a ten-second grace period) to read their poem. If the poet goes over time, points will be deducted from the total score by the scorekeeper.

JUDGEMENT CRITERIA

- Creativity and originality
- Coherence of form and structure
- Clarity of imaginary and language
